I'm a UI/UX designer with strong Front-end Development skills, with 11+ years of Industrial Experience. I focus on doing what I love, the web is my favorite platform for realizing new ideas. I am a perfectionist when it comes to pixel perfect designs and well-documented code.

On any given day, I design user-interfaces, building mobile-friendly websites, landing pages, and web apps, and managing content in and out of a CMS with the help of HTML, CSS, and Javascript. This enables me to work through designs from early problem solving to high fidelity prototypes.

Deep understanding of this process enables me to better communicate the project requirements and constraints with the team or take complex challenges on independently.

During my free time, I love to solve issue in Stack Overflow, work on 3D graphics using Blender and SVG!
